On July 31, 1964 the Embassy has noticed for the first time appearing in the official English language Sudan Daily an advertisement of East German broadcasts. The ad gives the summer schedule of the "Radio Berlin International--Voice of the German Democratic Republic" promising personal greetings from African students in the GDR to relatives and friends and inviting participation in a radio quiz with valuable prizes.

A clipping of this advertisement is forwarded with the original copy of this airgram. (Enclosure No. 1)

The German Cultural and Press Attache, Paul Kurbjuhn told the reporting officer that he intended to mention the matter in low key to the Deputy Director of the Ministry of Information and Labor, Hussein Mohammed Kamal, when the latter departs for a German exchange trip on August 5.
